

GORDONSTOUN Concerts S.O.C.I.E.T.Y 2010-2011 Programme

O Duo: Percussion Duo

Percussionists OWEN GUNNEL and OLIVER COX return to Gordonstoun with another kaleidoscopic and invigorating mix of popular classics and accessible contemporary music played on two marimbas, vibraphone and a huge array of percussion. Not to be missed. 'Phenomenal artistry... Brimming with style and panache'.
The Daily Telegraph.

Thurs 23rd September 2010, 7:30pm
St. Christopher's Chapel

Harry The Piano

'The best damn pianist in the civilised world' just about sums it up, but if you need more persuading Terry Wogan named it 'The best music show I've ever seen'. Paul 'Harry' Harris has headlined at festivals in all six continents and played with just about everybody in show business from David Bowie and Elvis Costello to Charlotte Church and the Opera Babes. Finally Harry is being recognised for what he does best, his ability to take requests to play 'any tune in any style'

Tues 19th October 2010, 7:30pm
Ogston Theatre

Red Priest

Red Priest is the only early music group in the world to have been compared in the press to the Rolling Stones, Jackson Pollock, the Marx Brothers, Spike Jones and the Cirque du Soleil. Described by music critics as 'visionary and heretical', 'outrageous yet compulsive', 'wholly irreverent and highly enlightened', 'completely wild and deeply imaginative', with a 'red-hot wicked sense of humour' and a 'break-all-rules, rock-chamber concert approach to early music.'

Thurs 25th November 2010, 7:30pm
St. Christopher's Chapel

Voces8

International award-winning vocal ensemble VOCES8, has established itself as the foremost young British a capella group performing a repertoire ranging from early polyphony to unique jazz and popular arrangements. VOCES8 has entertained audiences across Europe and has been praised for its stunning performances, exquisite singing and a sound that spans the entire range of vocal colour.

Thurs 20th January 2011, 7:30pm
St. Christopher's Chapel

All concerts take place at various venues within Gordonstoun School, located in the picturesque country surroundings between Duffus and Lossiemouth, approximately 5 miles north of Elgin.

Red Hot Chilli Pipers

Putting a modern spin on incredible piping and astounding drumming with an emphasis on showing off and putting on a show guaranteed to amaze any audience; A genuinely unique experience. The group is in much demand performing all over the world from the USA to China at the biggest of events and festivals! The band features Stuart Cassells the BBC Radio Scotland Young Traditional Musician of the Year 2005 and with three of the band members being recent graduates from the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama, the musicianship is first class. Stuart's piping has featured on The Darkness album 'One Way Ticket to Hell and Back' and on the soundtrack to the film 'Harry Potter and The Goblet of Fire'.

Fri 18th February 2011, 7:30pm
St. Christopher's Chapel

Pure Brass

Pure Brass is a vibrant, young and well established brass quintet. They have won several prizes including the RSAMD Governors Chamber Music Prize. The group tour regularly throughout Scotland and further afield, bringing their infectious enthusiasm to all ages.

Thurs 3rd March 2011, 7:30pm
St. Christopher's Chapel
